

10 Things To Do in Kansas City

National World War I Museum and Memorial

2 Memorial Dr, KC, MO 64108 816-888-8100 Tue-Sun 10a-5p 2 day pass $16

Largest collection of WWI artifacts in the world.

Firsthand accounts from the battlefield and home front alike.

Displays, thought provoking films and eye witness testimonies guide visitors through.

Arabia Steamboat Museum

400 Grand Blvd, KC, MO 64106 816-471-1856 10a-5p Mon-Sat, 12n-5p Sun $14.50

Built in 1853, the side wheel steamer was powering 200 tons of supplies.

It snagged on a felled tree and quickly disappeared.

Found over a century later ½ mile from the riverbank, under 45 feet of earth.

Largest collection of pre- Civil War artifacts in the world.

The sheer volume of preserved cargo is a must see!

Country Club Plaza

4750 Broadway, KC, MO 64112 (15 blocks) 816-753-0100 countryclubplaza@infoplaceusa.com

Spanish style upscale shopping district, the big attraction is the architecture.

Eateries, hotels, chain stores, boutiques, street performers and musicians.

Fountains, tiles and statues fill the district. Self- guided walking tour available.

Unity Temple

707 W 47th St, KC, MO 64112 Google Unity Temple on the Plaza for events and services. Free

Mission is to help people find spirituality through body, mind and spirit.

Buddhist to Catholic meditation and everything in between.

Bookstore inside. Worship, fitness, classes, theatre, concerts, NA & AA support groups.

Nelson-Atkins Museum of Art

4525 Oak St, KC, MO 64111 816-751-1278 Wed, Sat, Sun 10a-5p, Thu, Fri 10a-9p Free

Broad range of pieces from around the world, ancient to contemporary.

Includes rotating special exhibits and an outdoor sculpture park.

The Kemper Museum of Contemporary Art

4420 Warwick Blvd, KC, MO 64111 816-753-5784 Thu, Fri 10a-9p Sat, Sun 10a-4p Free

Modern and contemporary art housed in a building designed by Gunnar Birkerts.

Café Sebastienne Modern art meets the art of cooking! Modern vibe!

Lunch 11a-2p. Dinner Thu, Fri 5:30p-9p. Sunday Brunch, 11a-2:30p, well worth the trip!

Westport Neighborhood

Westport Rd, KC, MO 64111

A popular area for shopping, dining, comedy clubs, piano bars, a day or night out on the town.

Unique shops, unique people, good for people watching. Practice living a bit closer to the edge.

Power and Light District

1100 Walnut St, Suite 3000, KC, MO 64106 (9 Blocks)

Named after the art deco KC Power & Light Building, the newest hot spot for night life.

Wide variety of bars, restaurants, personalities, including The Shark Bar for 90's dancing!

"Howl at the Moon" sing alongs with dueling pianists, and a Big Sky mechanical bull!

National Museum of Toys and Miniatures

5235 Oak St, KC, MO 64112 816-235-8000 10a-4p daily $5

One of the world's largest antique toy collections on public display, over 72,000 objects.

The world's largest five scale miniature collection.

Unlock the memories and joys of childhood!

Union Station

30 W Pershing Rd, KC, MO 64108 Bldg open Mon-Sun 6a-12mn, Sun 12n-5p Free

Exhibits Mon-Sat 10a-5p, Sun 12n-5p $ varies

Historic Train Station, current Amtrak station, Rotating large scale exhibits, Science City, Theatres, Performances, Fairs and Cultural events. Beaux Arts architectural style.