...my husband and I physically went to the meeting site in xxxxxxxxxxxx but no one was there, however another lady was also looking for the meeting and was very disappointed to find that no one was there. She broke down and cried and I did too. It's very hard to muster up the strength and courage, find childcare, and go to a meeting for your first time. And it's very disheartening when the meeting isn't even there or happening. I would recommend taking that meeting off of your website. Thank you for your time.
